

The Jazz Arts Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit corporation whose mission is "to enhance the awareness of jazz as a performing art." The JAF has committed itself to the purpose of educating the public about jazz through the promotion of awareness and sensitivity to jazz, and to upgrade it as a performing art to a level of community acceptance and support equal to that given to other performing arts.

Founded in 1989, the Jazz Arts Foundation has sponsored and produced many jazz events, awarded jazz camp scholarships and grants to deserving musicians, and established a Youth Jazz Ensemble playing at various venues in the area from 1996 through 2007.

As a jazz fan and member of our organization, you will stay informed of all the local and area jazz happenings. And, as we grow with your support, so does our menu of jazz offerings to you!

Membership benefits:

- Discounted tickets to JAF sponsored events
- Discounts at various record stores
- Discounts on audio equipment at selected stores
- Discount subscriptions to Jazz publications
- The JAM SESSION newsletter
- Post card reminders of JAF & other jazz events

Your membership dues:

- Maintain a communications network to keep members informed.
- Publish the Jam Session, an online newsletter for JAF members, with jazz news, CD reviews and topics of interest to jazz fans.
- Fund scholarships and grants provided by JAF to students and musicians to heighten jazz awareness and activity.
- Help fund the annual Duke Madison scholarship to send a member of the CKYO Jazz Arts Orchestra to the Jamey Aebersold Summer Jazz Workshop.

JAF is recognized as a 501(c)(3) non-profit tax exempt organization by the Internal Revenue Service. Since the goods and services given for JAF membership meet the standards for insubstantial value set out by the IRS in Rev. Proc. 90-12, 1990-1 C.B. 471, and Rev. Proc. 92-49, 1992-1 C.B. 987, membership dues and any donations are fully tax deductible. Be sure to check with your tax advisor if you have any questions.
